

AT THE STAGE MUSICAL THEATRE ACADEMY OUR MISSION IS

"TO GIVE STUDENTS THE COURAGE TO ACHIEVE THEIR HIGHEST POTENTIAL IN THE ARTS AND IN LIFE"

Through experiences with performing arts we believe that each student will receive enormous benefits both as artists, and more importantly, as people. We truly believe that there is no child too young to begin reaping the rewards of performing arts activities. From our popular Baby Music Discoverers class all the way through to our Senior Performance Troupe we know that every student who enters our doors is on their way to building important life enhancing skills while also experiencing the joy of self expression, the most powerful of human expressions.

We are looking for an exceptionally enthusiastic people to teach at The Stage Musical Theatre Academy in New Westminster. In this role you will work in a dedicated team of performing arts educators, (our Dream Team!) to deliver our Junior Musical Theatre program to students ages 7.5 to 10 years old.

We seek a highly enthusiastic, zesty educator with experience in music, dance and/or theatre to guide some of our youngest students as they adventure into a performing arts program, some of them, for the first time.

In this role you will:

- Inspire your 7.5 year old students by teaching a weekly evening program involving singing, dancing and/or acting alongside a co-teacher/co-director.
- With your teaching partner, prepare your class for a fully realized musical theatre cabaret style review show in June of 2021 as well as, possibly, other performance in the year (Covid, of course, will be a factor here)
- With your teaching partner, plan material (songs, dances and/or scenes) from musical theatre repertoire for each student or group of students
- Plan and execute weekly lesson plans and rehearsals
- Contribute to a passionate team of educators via meetings and online catchups
- Contribute to the development of our Junior Musical Theatre program by making recommendations as well as taking feedback to ensure the program's excellent reputation and success.

ATTRIBUTES FOR SUCCESS

We are seeking a team member who whole heartedly believes that an arts education can have a dramatic impact on a student's life.

To be successful in this role you must demonstrate that you have:

- a true desire to make an impact in the lives of your students. You ADORE this age group and delight in their budding confidence and abilities. You understand that learning occurs when a student is engaged and having fun with their teacher in their class.
- a naturally warm and open approach to working with students and easily form bonds with your students and their parents. You are approachable and confident when speaking with parents and recognize that you are part of the educator/parent team that will help each child succeed.

- creative lesson planning skills. You can plan interesting lessons to delight your students and get a charge out of finding new activities to bring to your students each week. You don't settle for boring or mundane and instead want to challenge yourself and your students to try new things!
- a work ethic that takes you above and beyond to see each of your students succeed
- a desire to see every student for who they are and both recognize and celebrate their strengths
- endless patience for our students who are just learning how to move through the world with a sense of confidence and control.
- excellent classroom management skills that will allow for students to feel free in their classes while also feeling safe and secure while with you.
- a willingness to continue learning and to accept constructive feedback to ensure the quality and success of the program. You work to your strengths and are willing to continually grow in a supportive and encouraging environment
- commitment to our team. Our team is the core of everything that happens at The Stage. You are generous, creative and caring towards your fellow team members which uplifts the entire studio. You attend scheduled meetings understanding that doing so supports the mission of the school and encourages you higher mastery of your teaching art.
