

AT THE STAGE MUSICAL THEATRE ACADEMY OUR MISSION IS
"TO UNLOCK THE COURAGE AND RESILIENCE IN EVERY STUDENT SO THAT THEY CAN ACHIEVE THEIR HIGHEST POTENTIAL IN THE ARTS AND IN LIFE"

Through experiences with performing arts we believe that each child will receive enormous benefits both as artists, but more importantly, as people. We truly believe that there is no child too young to begin reaping the rewards of performing arts activities. From our popular Baby Music Discoverers class all the way through to our Senior Performance Troupe we know that every student who enters our doors is on their way to building important life enhancing skills while also enjoying the joy of self expression, the most powerful of human expressions.

We are looking for an exceptionally enthusiastic people to teach at The Stage Musical Theatre Academy in New Westminster. In this role you will work in a dedicated team of performing arts educators, (our Dream Team!) to deliver our programs to students ages 3-5 years old.

We seek a highly enthusiastic, zesty educator with experience in MUSIC, CREATIVE MOVEMENT and ART
to guide our youngest students as they adventure into this arts based social group.

In this role you will:

- Inspire your 3-5 year old students by teaching a weekly morning program involving music, creative movement, drama and art activities.
- Prepare each class for an informal in studio presentation for parents at the end of each term
- Plan and execute thematic lesson plans in art and the chosen study topic
- Work cooperatively with an assistant should registration require a second position
- Contribute to a passionate team of educators via meetings and online catchups
- Contribute to the development of our BrightLights Early Years by making recommendations as well as taking feedback to ensure the program's excellent reputation and success.

ATTRIBUTES FOR SUCCESS

We are seeking a team member who whole heartedly believes that an arts education can have a dramatic impact on a developing child's life.

To be successful in this role you must demonstrate that you have:

- a true desire to make an impact in the lives of your students. You ADORE this age group and delight in their budding confidence and abilities. You understand that learning occurs when a child is having fun with their teacher in their class.
- a naturally warm and open approach to working with children and easily form bonds with your students and their parents. You are approachable and confident when speaking with parents and recognize that you are part of the educator/parent team that will help each child succeed.
- creative lesson planning skills. You can plan interesting lessons to delight your young students and get a charge out of finding new activities to bring to your students each week. You don't settle for boring or mundane and instead want to challenge yourself and your students to try new things!

- a work ethic that takes you above and beyond to see each of your students succeed
- a desire to see every child for who they are and both recognize and celebrate their strengths
- endless patience for our students who are just learning how to move through the world with a sense of confidence and control.
- excellent classroom management skills that will allow for students to feel free in their classes while also feeling safe and secure while in your care.
- a willingness to continue learning and to accept constructive feedback to ensure the quality and success of the program. You work to your strengths and are willing to continually grow in a supportive and encouraging environment
- commitment to our team. Our team is the core of everything that happens at The Stage. You are generous, creative and caring towards your fellow team members which uplifts the entire studio. You attend scheduled meetings understanding that doing so supports the mission of the school and encourages you higher mastery of your teaching art.
- a desire to take initiative and solve problems as autonomously as possible
